Privacy Statement

The protection of information is important to SaskCulture. We, as an organization, are committed to protecting the privacy of our members, volunteers, clients, partners, and employees. Our commitment is to maintain the confidentiality of you information and preserve your right to privacy.

SaskCulture collects, uses and discloses information in order to manage the event as well as for promotional and networking purposes. When you register for an event, the information you provide will be distributed to other event participants for networking purposes. SaskCulture collects photographs at its own events for use in its own publications, on its website, and sometimes in its lottery partnership publications. Your signature verifies your consent to publish photographs (print or electronically), which may include your image, in its publications or electronic media, or publication prepared for Saskatchewan Lotteries promotion.

Withdraw of Consent. You may withdraw your consent, subject to legal or contractual obligations, and on reasonable written notice. If you withdraw your consent, you should first contact Administration Manager to understand the implications of such a withdrawal and, if you choose to proceed, provide written notice to SaskCulture.
